

Tasmanian Christian Convention Speakers for 2008

Kirk Patson is married to Lisa and the father of 2 boys aged 10 and 8. He has worked as a Speech Pathologist and Presbyterian Minister and for the last 8 years has been lecturing in Old Testament at Sydney Missionary and Bible College. Kirk is currently working on a commentary on the book of Isaiah.

Paul Harrington is married to Sue and they have three teenage children, Ben, Kate and David. Paul has been the Rector (Senior Pastor) of Holy Trinity, Adelaide, a large city church with a strong evangelical tradition, for the past 15 years. He is also involved in many other Christian organisations, such as, Adelaide Men's Convention, Scripture Union and MTS. Before going to Moore Theological College in Sydney, Paul studied and practiced Law.

Drew Patch is the husband of Pip and the father of Leila (5), Chloe (3) and Josiah(1). With his family he lives in the Inner West of Sydney. Drew has been involved in full-time youth ministry for near on two decades, half of which has been at St James, Croydon. His motto for youth ministry is simple: "Know Jesus and Make Him Known." He believes ministry to students is the most effective as most people make their Christian commitment during these years.

Training youth leaders is what he enjoys the most because leaders with good practical skills and great theology have an enormous impact.
